THE IMPORTANCE OF PET REGISTRATION

Registering your dog or cat greatly improves the chances of your animal being returned to you if it becomes lost, but registration fees also provide a whole range of other important services, including:

- A Council identification tag for your pet to wear.
- Lost and found service; a guarantee that if your pet is found wearing the council identification marker you will be notified.
- Council services to respond to calls about wandering dogs or dog attacks. This includes the removal of aggressive dogs from the streets, so you and your pet can walk in safety.
- Council services to deal with nuisance problems. These services manage issues like barking dogs, cat trespass, and unowned animals.
- Council control of 'dangerous', 'menacing' and 'restricted breed' dogs in your area. This ensures they do not pose a threat to the community.
- Council monitoring of pet shops, boarding kennels, catteries, pounds, shelters, and pet breeding and training businesses. This ensures they meet basic animal welfare standards required by law.
- A State Government education program for schools. This program makes visits to all Primary Schools in Victoria. It teaches children about safety with dogs, and how to be a responsible pet owner. For more information, see the website www.pets.info.vic.gov.au
- A State Government education program for pre-schools. This program teaches children and parents how to avoid dog attacks in the home and in public places.
