

Attachment 3: Latest Available Planning Permit Activity Performance Figures (January 2024).

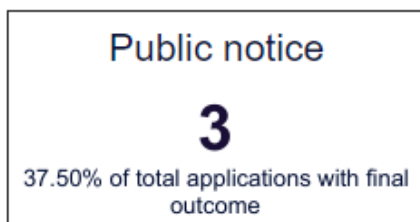

- Refer to Legend attached

Legend for Planning Permit Activity Performance Figures

The above is the number and percentage of applications, during the reporting period, where a request for further information from the applicant was made by officers.

This figure is derived from applications where a final decision was made (approval, refusal or withdrawn) during the reporting period.

The above is the number and percentage of applications, during the reporting period, that were advertised (placed on public notice) by officers.

This figure is derived from applications where a final decision was made (approval, refusal or withdrawn) during the reporting period.

The above is the number and percentage of applications, during the reporting period, that were referred to external agencies (CFA, GMW, GMW etc.) by officers for comment as part of the assessment process.

This figure is derived from applications where a final decision was made (approval, refusal or withdrawn) during the reporting period.

The above is the number and percentage of applications, during the reporting period, that received a submission from a third party (e.g. objection or letter of support from nearby landowner).

This figure is derived from applications where a final decision was made (approval, refusal or withdrawn) during the reporting period.