Introduction

The principles of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 are:

- To provide access to information held by agencies and government departments to members of the community:
- To ensure the publication of information regarding the functions of agencies and government departments:
- To allow members of the public to amend inaccurate, incomplete, or out of date personal information held by agencies and government departments:
- To provide a process of review of decisions regarding the request for information or the amendment of personal information.

Not all documents are eligible for release. The Freedom of Information Act allows an agency to refuse access to certain documents, which are called 'exempt' documents.

Examples of these documents include, but are not limited to:

- Some internal working documents
- Documents covered by legal professional privilege (such as legal advice)
- Documents affecting personal privacy
- Documents containing 'commercial in confidence' or trade secrets
- Information obtained in confidence
- Matters considered by Council at a closed meeting

This document has been compiled in accordance with Part II of the Act, which requires the agency (Council) to provide details and information of its functions under the following statements:

- Organisation and functions of Council
 - Categories of documents maintained by Council
 - Documents prepared by Council for publication or inspection
 - Subscription services and free mailing lists
 - How to apply for access to information under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 and details of responsible officers
 - Details of committees whose minutes are available for public inspection

Statement 5 – Freedom of Information Requests

Requests to access documents should be directed first to the Council department primarily responsible for the information you require.

Requests to access documents not available through the relevant departments can be made under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Act), by lodging a Freedom of Information request.

Requests under the Act must be made in writing stating as clearly and precisely as possible what information or document you are seeking access to, and addressed to:

Freedom of Information Officer
PO Box 177
Euroa Victoria 3666
Telephone: 03 5795 0000
Email: info@strathbogie.vic.gov.au

In person:
Strathbogie Shire Council offices, 109A Binney Street, Euroa or 317 High Street, Nagambie

All Freedom of Information requests must be accompanied by an application fee of $32.70 (which increases each year on the 01st of July). Fees may be waived in certain circumstances if the applicant can provide evidence of financial hardship. If payment is by cheque or money order, it should be made payable to Strathbogie Shire Council

Processing your request

Once we understand what information or document you are seeking, we will process your request and provide you with a decision as soon as possible but no later than 30 days after the date of your request and payment. Note that we may extend the 30-day period by up to an additional 15 days if consultation with third parties is required.

Charges

Access charges are set by government regulations and relate to the costs incurred in granting access to the documents you have requested.

Search & Retrieval time of documents $24.50 (being 1.5 fee units per hour) per hour or part or part of an hour

A4 Sized Black & White copies at $0.20 per page

Supervised Inspection of Documents $24.50 (being 1.5 units) per hour

Refusal of a Request

Not all documents are eligible for release. The Freedom of Information Act allows an agency to refuse access to certain documents, which are called 'exempt' documents.

Examples of these documents (and the relevant section of the Freedom of Information Act) include:

- Some internal working documents – section 30
 - Documents covered by legal professional privilege (such as legal advice) – section 32
 - Documents affecting personal privacy – section 33
 - Documents containing 'commercial in confidence' or trade secrets – section 34

- Information obtained in confidence – section 35
